C Sunday in Washington

The Chapel Altar at the Providence Hospital, 12th and Varnum Sts., N.E., Washington, D. C., dedicated to St. Joseph.

Dear Mother Paul,

It was nice to have good news to have your letter the very [illegible] early part of last week. When I was in Bethlehem I do hope you continue to improve in health.

The day after we return to Loretto, I left for a quick trip to Washington to be with my sister

21269

RoCa Color Cards, 12712 Hathaway Dr., Silver Spring, Md.

while she was at the hospital — and [illegible] per usual that all went well and she is home

PLACE STAMP HERE

POST CARD

Address

now & is feeling better — we had 13 inches of snow and it's really cute, washington in a spell.

This cold stems brought [illegible] to hospital by my Sister Margaret — sinus and one of her other illnesses are ever present. Love & Prayers,

Sisters Jane Ann Conroy